

LANDLORD FORUM TO DISCUSS RESPONSIBLE RENTING TO PEOPLE WITH CRIMINAL HISTORIES

--April 20th Event Hosted by Reentry Coalition & KC Metro Crime Commission--

Kansas City, KS– Managers and property owners wanting to learn more about responsibly renting to people with criminal histories can attend an upcoming landlord forum on April 20th, 2010 at Donnelly College in Kansas City, Kansas. Hosted by Carol Marinovich of the Kansas City Metro Crime Commission, members of the Reentry Coalition, and other special guests, the forum will educate attendees about incentives and partnerships that make it possible to provide housing opportunities for people with criminal backgrounds. Other topics will include screening, parole/supervision, resources available to tenants and policies that protect the owner from liability.

LANDLORD FORUM

Where: Donnelly College
608 N 18th St / Kansas City, KS
Main Building “The Meeting Room”

When: April 20th, 2010
6pm - 6:30pm Networking Presentation
6:30pm -7:30pm Panel Discussion

The Reentry Coalition is organized by the Kansas City Metropolitan Crime Commission. Led by the business, civic community and retired law enforcement, the Crime Commission recognizes that communities are safer, and property values rise, when we look at the full spectrum of issues that contribute to crime, not the least of which is assisting one-time offenders with employment and housing. For more information, contact Lora McDonald at 816-285-8668 or lmcdonald@kc-crime.org.

A Community Workforce Initiative
Sponsored by the Metropolitan Reentry Coalition
<http://www.kc-crime.org/>