SCHOLARSHIP DEADLINE APPROACHING!

The Kansas Housing Conference is pleased to offer 20 scholarships to attend this year's three-day event in Topeka. Presented by the Federal Reserve Bank of Kansas City, Kansas Housing Resources Corporation and NeighborWorks America, the conference takes place September 8th - 10th at the Capitol Plaza Hotel located at 1717 SW Topeka Boulevard.

A total of 28 breakout sessions, specialized community development and property management trainings, housing tours and two evening networking receptions will be offered. Over 400 housing providers, community development leaders, government officials, business professionals and advocates are expected to attend.

DON'T WAIT! The deadline to submit scholarship applications is Friday, July 23rd, 2010. Individuals receiving scholarships will be notified by July 30th, 2010.

Download the scholarship form here.

Scholarships will cover:

- $150 registration fee; Wednesday's lunch and reception; Thursday's breakfast, lunch and reception; and Friday's breakfast and boxed lunch.
- The scholarship does not cover NeighborWorks America's pre-conference training on Tuesday, Sept. 7th, travel or accommodations.

Scholarships must meet eligibility requirements before approval is granted. The conference is not obliged to award all 20 scholarships. If you have questions about the scholarship application process, please contact Mary Ontko at 913-721-2168 or email montko@sunflower.com.
